

SPONSORSHIP

October 18-19th
2019

Give drive and momentum to our dev community forward

We want to share knowledge, expose our peers to new ideas and highlight the hard work of our community in a premium space so everyone can connect.

Improve your credibility & connect

We're back for our sixth event in Medellin, Colombia on October 18 and 19, 2019. We've consistently sold out in less than a month every year.

JSConf Colombia has quickly become a well-recognized conference, and expects over 350 attendees coming from all over the world.

Connect

Find new talent and connect with our dev communities! We use several media channels after and before the event to reach more than 10 000 people worldwide. Our audience is captive and they want to hear what we have to say.
